

Occupational Health, Safety and Wellness: Manual

Abstract:

In this project, we were required to develop an OH&S manual for an industry of choice. We selected the restaurant industry and took into consideration all the relevant components of a good OH&S manual.

This manual was created to direct supervisors within the restaurant industry on how to approach OH&S in the workplace.

Date of Assignment: April 2017

Skills Developed: Knowledge of OH&S, relevant components of an OH&S manual.
