

Training Delivery and Evaluation: Workshop – Starting Your Own Business

Abstract

In this project, I was required to facilitate a 3-hour workshop titled “Starting your own business”. The workshop was presented in class. Through this workshop, I was able to showcase my presentation skills, strategies to encourage participation and focus from the audience and also ensure the workshop environment was fun and conducive for learning.

Date of Assignment: November 2016

Skills Developed: Knowledge & training transfer, training delivery & evaluation, and presentation skills.